Yalissa Draper came to ACHIEVE via our partnership with Cherokee County Adult Education. While with ACHIEVE she has had the opportunity to complete a paid work experience with Cherokee County Department of Social Services. Through this work experience she is getting hands on experience in the social work field, which she has taken an interested in. She is planning to attend Spartanburg Community College and major in Social Work. Through ACHIEVE and its partnerships with SCWORKS/MAU she has received a laptop to assist her with her college coursework. Yalissa received her GED in October of 2022 at Cherokee County Adult Education.
