He reported that both the Bi-Lingual Career Consultant and the SC Works Union Center Manager positions had been filled. He stated that Mr. Ken Moon, SC Works Gaffney Center Manager, was in the process of creating a digital recording of a WIA orientation session. This video recording would be used for 1:1 orientations when a customer cannot attend a group session. Mr. Stephenson reported that SC Works Upstate had implemented a new “Next Steps” procedure for first time visitors so that their next steps would be clearly understood. Finally, Mr. Stephenson told the committee that SC Works Spartanburg would be hosting their first “HR Café” in January. He invited the committee members to attend. • Mr. Jacobs and Ms. Connelly updated the committee on the recent conference call organized by Mr. Winston Tompoe, US DOL. Mr. Jacobs stated that the call seemed to go very well. Ms. Connelly reported that Mr. Tompoe told SCDEW staff that they were operating out of compliance by operating independent of the SC Works comprehensive center. He also told SCDEW staff that it was the local area board’s decision to appoint a business services lead. He supported the Upstate WIB’s business services model and encouraged the SCDEW staff to cooperate with the local area to return to the account executive approach that worked so well in the area in the past. Ms. Connelly reported that the next steps would be to schedule a meeting with local SCDEW staff to discuss implementation of the new business services model and to resume PY14 RSA/MOU negotiations. A discussion ensued.
