

Spartanburg County has appointed Hunter Blake to serve on the Upstate Workforce Board, representing the private sector in manufacturing. Her term will extend until June 30, 2028.

With over two decades of experience at Milliken & Company, Ms. Blake has held various leadership positions, including Senior Director of Human Resources, Compensation & Analytics. Additionally, she serves as the Group Director for the Milliken Women's Alliance. Hunter has been recognized for her exemplary leadership in Human Resources, receiving both the "J.B. Johnson" Human Resources Leadership Award and the Leadership in Diversity Award.